The candidate will participate in an academic assessment via Zoom with a member of our school team. We then require the internship placement fee of €500 to be paid as soon as the student has been accepted on the programme. The final invoice, minus the placement fee received, must be paid at least four weeks prior to arrival. The internship placement fee is nonrefundable except in the rare occasion that a suitable placement cannot be found. Please note that students may need to participate in a Zoom interview with the company prior to confirmation of the internship.
